Honorable Joseph G. Minish
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Minish:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter to Mr. William Casey dated 16 July 1982 concerning Mr. William P. Ford of Montclair, New Jersey.

I have checked with the Information and Privacy Coordinator and have learned that this Agency received no request directly from Mr. Ford for information on Mr. Ford's sister who was one of the American women slain in El Salvador. However, a request was received from Mr. Michael Posner, Executive Director of The Lawyers Committee for International and Human Rights, wherein Mr. Posner stated he was acting on behalf of the families of four slain churchwomen. That request for a search of our records was completed on 15 July 1982 and the materials located were forwarded to Mr. Posner.

I hope this response provides you with the information you need to correspond with Mr. Ford.

Cordially yours,
